

Parenting isn't an easy job and as parents and carers there are times when we all need a little extra support and guidance, someone to talk to and point us in the right direction. Someone who is non-judgmental, who will listen and offer practical advice and support.

Pathfield School Family Liaison Officer

Sharon Facey

Inspiring interaction

My role as Family Liaison is to support you, your child and your family by providing advice and information. I can help you with any concerns or worries you may have in relation to your child's education, behaviour, attendance and to provide support on how best to deal with it.

Please contact me with any queries , ideas and feedback using my contact details overleaf.

I would really like to know what you think and how we can work together going forwards.

I can help with:

Offer emotional support to manager and resolve issues.

Transition information

Building confidence to deal with difficult issues and behaviours.

Finding other services and agencies available to support you, your child and family.

Advice on debt and benefits

I can do this by offering:

Direct and confidential support

Home visits

Workshops and courses

Attendance at reviews and/or meetings

Parent drop ins

Special Educational Needs

& Disability

Parent drop-ins:

Would you like.....

- ◆ A cuppa and a chat?
- ◆ The opportunity to meet with other parents?
- ◆ The opportunity to chat with our school nurse?
- ◆ To be able to ask questions?
- ◆ To find about local services?
- ◆ To take part in an art/craft activity with your child/young person?

Then come along to our weekly parent drop-in on a Friday from 1:45pm. Jackie looks forward to seeing you there.

Jackie Jenkins

Parent drop-ins are currently on hold due to Covid-19.
