Collective Worship Policy

Introduction

We believe that collective worship forms an essential part of the life of Pathfield School. It provides the opportunity to support all aspects of the school life and curriculum, and is a chance to celebrate effort, perseverance, kindness, success and achievement in our students. Collective worship also allows space for stillness and reflection in what can be a very busy and active day for our children.

Aims

The central aims of collective worship at Pathfield are to:

- provide our children with regular opportunities for stillness and reflection
- promote children's spiritual, moral, social and cultural development
- celebrate the values and worth of the school community and all who belong in it, including the sharing of the gifts and talents of our children.
- help children develop understanding both of the nature and language of worship
- help children develop respect and sensitivity to the beliefs and values of others
- support the broader curriculum through the use of art, music, dance, story, drama and other visual and oral means of communication.

The Legal Position

The 1988 Education Reform Act states that collective worship must be on a daily basis for all registered pupils in MAINSTREAM SCHOOLS. However, this legislation DOES NOT APPLY TO SPECIAL SCHOOLS

At Pathfield School we have a range of themes and topics through which collective worship takes place. Key themes support the values celebrated in our curriculum, which include mutual respect, cultural diversity and social inclusion. We believe these themes are clearly Christian in nature but are universal in their application.

We recognise that in our school we have children from a variety of faith backgrounds and that many children have no religious background at all. Great care is taken in our collective worship to ensure that all children feel valued and special and that their integrity as human beings is consistently upheld.

Parents do have, the right of withdrawal from Collective Worship. Parents who have any concerns about the provision and practice of our Collective Worship are strongly encouraged to contact the Headteacher.

Context of Collective worship

In order to promote children's learning and to reflect the differing needs of our children, our acts of worship vary in size and nature. Our assembly pattern is set out to ensure a breadth of learning and different approaches are used to enable all learners to access information independently or with adult support. Approaches to collective worship are experienced as below

- Whole school celebrations and festivals
- Key Stage assemblies
- Class based with a theme

Visitors play an important part in the life of our school and regularly contribute to acts of worship.

We hope to create a stimulating and thoughtful time for our children by providing a range of multi-sensory experiences. These include music, singing, dance and stories, as well as encouraging children to contribute to the collective worship by sharing their own work and ideas.

Conclusion

Collective Worship plays a very important role in our school as we seek to develop our children in the skills of reflection and empathy, to encourage and celebrate their talents and to promote their spiritual and moral development.
